Walkout of 'Outlaw' Railmen Will Be Called on Monday. White House Told, Unless Wage Demands Granted

10,000 Miners Idle in Pottsville, Pa., Due to the Death Train; U. S. Supply of Coal Short; Famine Feared

WASHINGTON, June 24.—A general walkout of railroad workers affecting every railroad system in the country is planned for Monday unless there is immediate action by the Railroad Labor Board on wage demands, the White House was notified today.

According to the information laid before Secretary Tumulty by union leaders to be submitted to the President today, the leaders are no longer able to hold the men and have received positive word that the "outlaws" will carry through a program for a general strike beginning Monday, before that time no decision is announced.

BITUMINOUS COAL SUPPLY IS BEHIND

WASHINGTON, June 24 (United Press).—Unauthorized railroad strikes threaten many sections of the country with a coal famine next winter, officials of the government and of the National Coal Association here said today. The country is 35,000,000 tons of bituminous coal behind its normal production, due to the recent "outlaw" railroad strike and the mine strike, according to J. D. Morrow of the National Coal Association.

CHICAGO, June 24 (United Press).—The United States railroad labor board has reached a deadlock in its efforts to fix wage increases for two million railroad workers demanding salary boosts, it was believed here today.

OUTLAWS SAID TO BE FAVORED

According to information here the board is undecided whether the wage increases shall apply to "outlaw" railmen, a majority of whom are said to be said, favors including the outlaws.

Officials of the railroad brotherhoods will meet here tomorrow. They are expected to oppose any attempt to recognize the outlaws, to the extent of taking a strike referendum among its own memberships on the question.

John Crum, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, has called a meeting of outlaw strike leaders for tomorrow in Chicago.

Chairman R. M. Barton declared that the board is undecided whether it hopes to announce its decision shortly.

Spread of unauthorized strikes continued today. Switchmen on the Missouri Pacific walked out at Van Buren, Ark.

10,000 MINERS IDLE IN POTTSVILLE, PA.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 24.—Ten thousand anthracite miners in this region were idle today because of the new "outlaw" railroad strike. Slidings are blocked with loaded cars.

WILSON'S MESSAGE ASKED FOR ACTION

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Wilson's telegram to the labor board, in which he requested the board to take speedy action on the pending wage increase, was made public by the White House this afternoon. The telegram was as follows:

"Report placed before me shows transportation situation hourly growing more difficult, and I am wondering whether it would not be possible for your board to announce a decision with reference to the pending wage matters."

"At least would it not be possible for your board, if it has reached no final conclusion relative to these vital matters, tentatively to agree upon a settlement of even a partial settlement?"

It was announced at the White House that a reply had been received from the labor board, but that it would not be made public at this time.

Friends of Edwards Fear He Is Too Wet and Would Send Him to Dehydrator; Cox Is Now Favorite of Beer Men

Bryan's Opponents Combine to Hamstring Him; Payne Gets Seat in Candidate Row; Hitchcock Seeks Job

By AD SCHUSTER

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—With the arrival of large herds of delegates the launching of new presidential and vice-presidential booms, and the first real busy day in any of the various headquarters, that much-prized outward show of harmony and good-natured rivalry has packed its all-around bag and departed. It was not only the managers who know it, and nobody cares who knows it, but the majority of the three hundred delegates now on the scene are content to stand on the side line and breathe the hope, "May the wet man win."

EDWARDS, TOO WET, MAY BE HUNG ON LINE

The Edwards camp doesn't like the Cox camp and the reason is not difficult to find. Although both candidates wear wine-colored bathing suits, it is felt that Cox is only damp to the ankles while Edwards is up to the neck in sweat. Certain wet who had hoped to consolidate their strength on the Jersey Governor and that the one from Ohio, who is without the reputation of support from the actual liquor interests, has been able to line up a large portion of the light wine and beer ballots. Try as they may they cannot convince everyone that Edwards is no wetter than Cox.

Walter Vick, manager for Edwards, arrived today. He claims New Jersey solid for his man, and some votes in Maine, Virginia, Oklahoma, Illinois, Indiana, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and California. North Carolina, he says, is going big for Edwards and New York is in doubt.

The Cox crowd, as well as may become wets, are sitting tight. Both camps are looking to enroll Burlington since he has done for wine and beer and each claims his declaration is a victory.

WETS NOW CLAIM 450 SURE VOTES

The wets now claim that close to 450 votes are lined up their way, a large claim at this stage of the battle, and one which, if true in any measure, will give them a chance for victory. As they see it, the vote now in sight shows:

New York, 90; Pennsylvania, 32; Illinois, 50; Connecticut, 14; New Jersey, 28; Massachusetts, 36; Maryland, 15; Missouri, 26; Ohio, 48; Rhode Island, 10; Kentucky, 25; and Indiana, 30.

The Cox-Edwards fight is one that will disappear after the contest is narrowed in the convention. The wet forces will not divide their strength beyond a reasonable point. It is for that reason that the fight right now is bitter, for the man who can make the best initial showing may be the one who will be given the strength of the other.

Spirited as this argument is, it is not in spirit the row on between Palmer and Cox. The Palmer forces are out in full number with noise and enthusiasm and the open declaration that their man will be high candidate on the first count.

Pershing and Gov. Smith Is Newest Ticket

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, June 24.—The statement that he believed a ticket composed of General John J. Pershing for President and Governor Alfred Smith of New York for Vice-President "would sweep the country" was made today by John H. McCooey, Democratic leader of Kings county (Brooklyn), N. Y. McCooey said the New York delegation, including himself, would be for Governor Smith for President as long as he had any chance of winning the nomination.

"My personal opinion is that General Pershing is the strongest man we could nominate," he continued. "The Republicans are scared stiff because they passed him by."

WAR PROVIDED "TUBER" FOR MANY PRESIDENTS.

"Every great war in which the country has been engaged has produced a President," McCooey went on. "The last fifty years there have been only three civilian Presidents."

Asked concerning his attitude on the prohibition question, McCooey said he would advocate a "liberal" construction of the eighteenth amendment, which he said meant the raising of the ban on light wines and beer.

The New York delegation will do its best to secure the adoption of a plank to that effect, he said.

McCooey declined to express a preference among the candidates other than General Pershing and Governor Smith.

"I know little about Governor Cox and can't say one way or the other about him. Governor Edwards is a good fellow personally. William Gibbs McAdoo," he said "seems to be out of it."

The Kings county party included many women. Among them is Mrs. John F. Hyland, wife of the mayor of New York City. Mrs. Hyland is not a delegate.

She is representing the mayor, who could not get away for the convention, McCooey said, laughingly.

Huge Oil Fraud Charge of U. S. Grand Jurors

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A drive against the alleged misrepresentation of oil company securities was started today by federal officials here with announcement of indictment of four oil companies, several stock selling concerns and fifty individuals by a grand jury in United States district court.

Use of the mails in a scheme to defraud was charged. Five indictments were returned. Federal officials claimed they had evidence that the public has lost more than $1,000,000 through the schemes involved in the indictments.

Postoffice inspectors today were working from Miami to California, officials said, rounding up indicted men. Several Wall street brokerage firms were among those accused.

The first indictment was against the Ranger Oil company of Texas, the Curtis Barker company, Wall street brokers and officials of the two concerns. Federal officials alleged the Ranger company was capitalized at $1,000,000 and 300,000 shares of stock were sold.

ALLIGED IMPROPER USE OF MAI.

The United States company, a Connecticut concern, also was accused of having used the mails to defraud in this indictment.

McCooey said he would advocate the use of P. Williams Oil company, a Delaware corporation owning Kentucky oil lands, and its officials also mentioned were the Day Pollock company, now operating under the name of the H. Morgan-Pollock company, a New York concern owning Texas oil lands, the brokerage company of Stickney, Rawlings and Colquhoun of Boston, and officials of the concern, and the following New York brokers: H. Kent Holmes & Co., Thomas, James & Co., William E. Heffron, Crossman, Sherman & Co.

CALIFORNIA MAN NAMED IN COUNT.

The third indictment is against the Crown Oil company, a Delaware concern, owning Kentucky oil lands; E. M. Fuller & Co., Wall street brokers; B. X. Lawton, New York broker; V. H. Burlingame, Cal., president of the Crown Oil company; C. D. Pratt, Lexington, and W. P. Williams, Irvine, Ky.

The broker firm of Greenbaum, Blawie and Greenbaum is accused of using the mail to defraud in the sale of stock of the Charles United Oil company. The officials of the oil company did not know of the alleged misrepresentation, federal agents said. The company was to have sold 70,000 shares of stock.

The Great Western Petroleum corporation, with offices in Chicago and New Orleans, and Kansas and Kentucky, and George A. Lamb company, of Kansas, were named in the fifth indictment.

"Virginia Platform" Will Be Made Party Creed if Wish of President Is Obedied; Glass Will Boss Progress

Adoption of Peace Treaty Is Big Thing in White House Eyes and Must Be Carried Out, Is Order of "Master"

By DAVID M. CHURCH, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—President Wilson is not in favor of the Democratic national convention taking any cognizance of prohibition or the Irish question in the Democratic platform. It was learned today.

Senator Carter Glass of Virginia is conferring with party leaders today, giving them the president's views on the party platform.

"I am not an ambassador to the convention from the president," Senator Glass said. "I bring no formal message from the president and I have no draft of any plank that the president has prepared. I believe I have a clear idea of what the president wants, however. I conferred with the president at the White House and left him to board the train for San Francisco."

"I have the Virginia platform with me. The president has endorsed that platform. I believe it is good enough."

SILENCE ON DRY ISSUE IS WORD

Questioned concerning prohibition and Irish planks in the Democratic platform, Senator Glass said:

"The Virginia platform made no mention of prohibition. The Virginia platform made no mention of the Irish question. Virginia has enough trouble without going to Ireland for more."

While Senator Glass refused to make any flat statement as to his opposition to prohibition or Irish planks, he intimated strongly that such was the case and that he was prepared to inform Democratic leaders to that effect.

Senator Glass is prepared to fight for the administration's viewpoint on the platform and anticipates that there will be a struggle between the administration and anti-administration group led by William Jennings Bryan on the question of a league of nations plank.

"Bryan has pretty clearly indicated what he intends to do. He won't have to wait much longer to see what the result will be," Senator Glass said. "The Virginia platform which I believe is the best platform the president's idea of the party platform provides for ratification of the peace treaty and the league of nations with nothing more than interpretative resolutions. All that is opposed to such a plank and favors ratification upon the best terms possible."

WILSON REQUESTS, NOT DEMANDS

"The president isn't making any demands upon the convention," Senator Glass said. "I have a few suggestions which I will make to the resolutions committee, however, and they will meet the president's views and they are all incorporated in the 'Virginia platform'."

The Virginia platform covers everything that is asked of the president. Senator Glass continued, "and the president has formally endorsed it, so it seems to me that the president's platform views are pretty well known."

Senator Glass is slated by the administration forces to be elected chairman of the resolutions committee, which will formulate the platform.

Senator Glass refused to comment on the suggestion that he and Chairman Cummings had been in the last night and then went into a protracted conference in Senator Glass's room.

The conference lasted until nearly midnight and a thorough understanding between the two so-called "personal representatives" of President Wilson resulted.

"Mr. Cummings and I discussed matters generally and the platform subject was brought up incidentally," said Mr. Glass.

Senator Glass refused to comment on the suggestion that he and Chairman Cummings held the conference in order to straighten out any possible misunderstandings that might arise from divided presidential authority.

Glass favors adopting the platform before the candidate is selected.

Ray Baker to Seek Nevada Senatorship

Raymond T. Baker of Oakland, director of the mint, today announced his candidacy for the United States senatorship from Nevada. More than once before the Nevada toga has been held temptingly before Baker's eyes, but each time he has sidestepped the invitation. "They don't last long enough in that job," he said. "I can name enough dead senators from Nevada to man a ship, but I know five living directors of the mint. Better a live director than a dead senator."

But casualties recently among the mountain senators have not been heavy, and Baker has decided to "take a chance." If elected, he will use his position to help Nevada's interests.

It is some two years ago that Baker, first proposed for senatorial honors, contemplated the state of Nevada, which he had followed Nevada senators, two of whom had died in office and five of whom had died immediately after their terms ended. Baker didn't like the prospect.

Woman, Stricken by Illness, Is Drowned

ALAMEDA, June 24.—Attacked by a fainting spell while bathing, Mrs. Juliette Trysack, wife of John Trysack, 2140 San Antonio avenue, for many years chief gardener for the City of Alameda, drowned when she was swimming off the south end of Walnut street, this city.

Mrs. Trysack's plight was observed by a woman resident on the bay front. She immediately called the police. An ambulance was summoned before help arrived. She was removed to the emergency hospital and later to the branch morgue.

She died of heart failure. She was 50 years of age. Her husband, who is an invalid, completely without the use of his voice, due to paralysis, is prostrated over her death. No funeral arrangements have been made. Her relatives are endeavoring to communicate with the couple's relatives. Trysack's inability to speak makes it difficult to handle the case.

The Trysacks are of French origin and have lived at their home here for over a score of years. Their garden, which contained hundreds of rose bushes, has attracted wide attention.

Ryan Is Expelled By Stock Exchange

NEW YORK, June 24.—Allan A. Ryan, chairman of the Stutz Motor Car Company, has been expelled from the New York Stock Exchange. Governors of the exchange held a lengthy executive session yesterday.

Several hundred brokers, who were identified in one way or another with the so-called "corner" of Stutz stock, were present.

At the conclusion of the executive meeting yesterday no announcement was made of the decision in the Ryan case by the board of governors.

The decision was announced at the time of adjournment was ominous, however, to those concerned, and the "hunch" expressed by many about the building that the case would be closed for Ryan was borne out by the decision read just before the call of the board this morning.

Ryan, who was charged with "practices of trade" did not appear in person. He had previously been reported as saying that the attitude of the governing committee was "unjust and that the investigation would be in the nature of a star-chamber one."

Early this spring Stutz stock went skyward and performed so pyrotechnically that a probe was made for the string-pullers.

The regulations apply particularly to Russians living in Khabarovsk, on the railway from Vladivostok to Nikolaevsk.

Russians are commanded, according to the dispatch, not to harm Japanese and to disarm. The decree asserts the unqualified right of the Japanese to arrest Russians. Open-air meetings are banned. A censorship is imposed on mail and telegrams.

British Troops Use Armored Car to Battle Snipers in Londonderry, Killing 15 and Wounding Great Many

Unionists, Sinn Feiners Both Suffer Heavily in the Killed and Wounded; Both Sides at the Point of Exhaustion

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

BELFAST, June 24.—Following a full of nearly twenty-four hours, another violent eruption at Londonderry broke out this afternoon, according to advices from that city by telephone.

The rioting was said to surpass Tuesday's sanguinary fighting in fierceness. Both Sinn Feiners and Unionists were firing from behind barricades.

Sinn Feiners' reinforcements rushed to Londonderry and are engaged in the conflict. The reinforced British troops were said to be helpless in the face of the "offensive."

Communication with Londonderry has become very difficult.

LONDONDERRY IS TO BE DISARMED

LONDON, June 24.—Londonderry is to be disarmed at once, it was announced this afternoon by Dennis Henry, attorney general for Ireland. A military curfew order prohibiting the people from the streets during certain hours, unless provided with passports, will be put into effect at Londonderry, the Irish attorney general said.

The British military authorities will be given full discretionary powers to take any steps they consider necessary for the disarmament of the "disloyal" population of the Londonderry population.

SNIPERS FIRE UPON WARSHIP

LONDONDERRY, June 24 (By the Associated Press).—A number of Sinn Feiners rounded up by the military had arms and plenty of ammunition. They were handed over to the police. Among those arrested was a Sinn Feiner named Williams. The destroyer, which arrived yesterday, was forced to change its berth today because snipers were firing upon it.

BELFAST, June 24.—Comparative quiet reigned at Londonderry today, according to a telephone message from that city this morning. Only occasional shots were heard in the streets.

It has been impossible to estimate the casualties, but the dead are believed to number nearly a score if not more.

Reinforcements of British troops have reached the scene and the city is under military guard.

A report from Londonderry later in the day said that attacks by the Sinn Feiners, made with machine guns, had virtually ended all rioting. Among the dead found in the streets was a woman named Williams. An unconfirmed rumor was current that the Sinn Feiners were planning a night attack upon the municipal gas plant. Resulting in the despatch of troops with fixed bayonets to guard the place.

Reinforcements have been arriving at Londonderry at intervals during the greater part of the day. The British troops—youths for the most part—upon whom fell the duty of protecting the city during the rioting, are nearly spent with exhaustion.

Machine guns were used at times during the most violent of the fighting.

Women played a heroic part in venturing into the bullet-swept streets and carrying away the wounded on stretchers.

Saint Columba college was the scene of several shots. Sinn Feiners—thieves—defended the institution against attacks by Unionists.

A mail train was held up in County Cork today and two of the train men kidnapped. The telegraph wires were cut to impede pursuit.

TENNESSEE CALL LEGAL, SUFFRAGE OVER U. S. SEEN

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Acting Attorney General Frierson has informed Governor Roberts of Tennessee that he can legally call a special session of the legislature to act on the federal woman suffrage amendment, it was stated at the White House today.

Frierson says formal ruling was sent to the Tennessee governor at the request of President Wilson, it was said.

Frierson's ruling followed a request of President Wilson to Roberts urging him to call the special session of the legislature so that Tennessee, a Democratic state, would furnish the thirty-sixth state ratifying the suffrage amendment, thus allowing women to vote in the fall elections.

Suffrage leaders today saw in Frierson's ruling, coupled with Roberts' announcement that he would act favorably on Wilson's suggestion, the end of women's fifty-year battle for the ballot.

Miss Alice Paul, head of the National Woman's party, said there was no doubt Tennessee would ratify and that the ratification would be legal.

Miss Paul compared Wilson's suggestion to Governor Roberts for a special legislative session with the expressed attitude of Senator Harding, Republican presidential nominee, who said he would not interfere with the states.

quarters, unfriendly to Wilson, his move was interpreted as another indication that he is seeking a third term.

Politics 'Old Stuff' Say Women Suffragists Haggle for Votes Film Censor Relates Troubles

By GEORGE G. BORDWELL.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The women of the Democratic party are pleased with their party—their progress and their convention. They are almost without exception Democrats by inheritance and they take their politics as they do their religion—they tell you that they sprang from a long line of Democrats and that they could no more shake their politics than their skin. As for their progress—when Mrs. Buss was told yesterday afternoon that Homer Cummings has given out a statement to the press that it was his opinion that at the next convention a woman from each state would hold equal place with a man upon the national committee, she smiled a tantalizing smile and said: "Old stuff—old stuff—announced that weeks ago."

MADE TO ORDER STUFF.
And now for the convention—Mrs. Frank Hiram Snell, delegate from the District of Columbia—the only woman on the delegation—declares that she is a Democrat by conviction—that all her ancestors were Republicans. And Mrs. Snell says that this convention is exactly to her liking—that it is just what a Democratic convention should be. She has given out an exchange of ideas as to who would be a good candidate—a free for all fight—with the delegates all in the dark as to who will be the choice of the crowd.

She, too, wants to see a woman for her party. She naively says that she would much rather belong to a party which flew off at a tangent and did absurd things once in a while than to belong to a static one—she considers the flights a sign of vitality.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The anti-convention campaign had progressed to the stage today where, for the first time, the various methods by which the candidates' organizations hope to win the Democratic presidential nomination for their respective chiefs could be determined. It is possible to classify the principal candidates as follows:

Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer—Will employ the same "foot-ball" tactics that Major General Leonard Wood attempted at Chicago. Expects to poll as high as 500 votes on the first ballot and smash straight through to a victory without making concessions to any rivals.

Governor James M. Cox—Counts on the solid support of the Middle West and several important states in the West and East. Does not concede Palmer first place on the initial ballot. Regards alleged ability to cause the resignation of the Republican nominee, Senator Warren G. Harding, as one of his principal assets.

Governor Edward I. Edwards—Will make entire fight on a "personal liberty" and "states' rights" platform. His managers frankly state he will withdraw unless a "dark horse" campaign. The Democratic national platform.

DAVIS IS "DARK HORSE".
Ambassador John W. Davis—His friends are conducting purely a "dark horse" campaign. They are careful to preserve friendly relations with all other aspirants and are working solely to line up second choice delegates.

Senator Robert L. Owen—Expects to draw his strength from the "progressive" element rather than from any geographical conditions. Counts on support of William J. Bryan, because of his avowed "dry" tendencies.

William G. McAdoo—Relegated by his withdrawal from the race to the position of an unwilling "compromise" candidate. Previously was conceded first place in initial strength. One of his greatest assets was his supposed hold on the labor vote.

Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall—His friends emphasize his ability as a "peacemaker" and regard him as the one candidate upon whom all factions may unite.

GLASS IS "REGULAR".
Senator Carter G. Glass—Looked upon by his backers as the most potent representative of the present administration, especially as regards foreign policies.

Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby—Practically the same as Glass, with the added belief of his friends that he is the logical heir and assign of McAdoo's delegates.

Others whose candidacies have not yet developed any particular individuality: Secretary of Agriculture Meredith, Governor Smith, Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Homer S. Cummings, James W. Gerard, Senator F. J. Cushman.

Just, of course, is first, last and always "dry".

Probably the most significant statement made today was that of H. J. Brown, speaking for Edwards, who said that unless the Democrats repudiated the Volstead act the New Jersey governor would be compelled to withdraw from the race.

qualifications of her candidate, so that she is a factor in the pre-convention lobbying not to be despised.

For seven years past Mrs. Miller has been on the State Board of Censors and she says that she has viewed three thousand films a month ever since her appointment.

Her description of the effect of such censoring has had upon her is diverting in the extreme. She was asked to chaperone a young sixteen-year-old girl out to California on her trip this summer. She describes the young woman as most innocent and unworried—the movies being censored in Ohio.

VISITORS PRAISE CONVENTION HALL AND APPOINTING

By LARA BRIDE POWERS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—

"It was like San Francisco to build the Civic Auditorium near the base of supplies," said one of the Cox advance guards at an Edwards' man as he entered the convention hall this morning to look over the arena for the Big Party. "And the stuff's not so bad."

Senator Irving Cobb who complained that he had to walk two whole blocks at the Chicago convention to satisfy his soul?

The verdict of the reconnoitering party over the convention hall was favorable.

They tried out the acoustics from every angle and from the topmost gallery and pronounced it more than good.

That confirmed the verdict of John McCormick after his concert on Sunday; but what is true of the singing voice is not widely true of the speaking voice, although the simultaneous applause from the whole house at the moment the last note died away convinced the singer that the acoustic side of the hall had been corrected, and that it was now all that any artist or speaker could ask.

Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the Woman's Bureau, tried it out and renders the same opinion. She says her voice carried to every part of the house, and that was before the Bell-voice-carrying apparatus was hoisted in place over the stage.

AUDITORIUM DOLED UP
Today the auditorium that commemorates San Francisco's Rainbow City that was a thing of beauty, its skeleton roof has succumbed to the decorator's finesse, a modernist, by the way, and the rest was easy. That ribbed-roof was a sore trial to the artist's soul.

The decorative scheme has the distinction of being original.

Indeed, it is characteristic of the wide-awake West in its cubic design for color, blue and yellow and dark blue, with flags—flags back of the stage, on the stage, around the pillars and the nation's colors in bunting effecting the gallery walls and all the subdivisions of the big arena.

The effect is sensational, particularly from the galleries, perhaps the most ambitious effort ever attempted in the country to make a great gaunt building look festive. And it gets over.

But why the Napoleonic motif? Somebody must have said something about the "upside-down" appearance of it to the artist, for he promptly criss-crossed it in his panels with a cubist design in yellow and black, and set eight boa-constrictors rampant to offset the argument about it in the big spaces. Herein lies a warning.

As to the practical end of the convention hall and the arrangements for the press, with and without Postmaster Charles Fay and George Mara have accomplished what looks like perfect plans.

HIGH FENCE BARRER
The entire block in front of the auditorium is railed off by a ten-foot fence that shall be penetrated by six entrances on both Larkin and Folsom streets.

Machines will have to be parked wherever the gods may will, but there should be little congestion because of the group of streets ramifying from the auditorium. At all times will be the ticket-taker, who, be who he may, will assume the importance of a presidential candidate. The press representatives will enter from the Hayes street, and the audience will likewise be fenced off from the multitudes.

Not content with the regular Yale locks on the building, the convention committee has installed its own locks.

The press correspondents will take their stories of the big doings from both sides of the stage, each representative having two feet of elbowroom. It is hoped that none of them have big feet, because the aisles are narrow.

The musicians will be quartered on a "mezzanine floor" over the stage and yet above them is another gallery for the big dignitaries who shall be in attendance, men and women.

Below stage are a series of rooms for the press, with bookshelves, more or less private, equipped with seven phones.

The restaurant is to be located on the Folsom street side, accessible from the foyer.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR WOMEN
The arrangements for the women who shall attend the convention—where are 400 officially attending and 200 or more accompanying their husbands—will be hospitable as California can make them, with a rest room at each end of the second floor. The rooms will be gay with flowers during the big days, with all the sartorial equipment that the smart women of affairs demands to keep her "in the part."

And let it be said in passing that San Francisco has "housecleaned" her big convention house until it shines. Every wall in the block-wide structure has been painted anew in a nice soft buff tone, for which somebody is to be congratulated, and the janitor force is on the job with a true California spirit that has made San Francisco the sweetheart of the world.

CONVENTIONALITIES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Cox boomers had a nervous hour when Judge James G. Johnson, who is to nominate Cox, was "lost" en route to San Francisco. Judge Johnson stepped off his train at Benicia and the train pulled out while the jurist blissfully bought picture postcards.

Senator Carter Glass met a new member of his family en route to San Francisco. "Captain" Glass was the conductor on the train which brought the senator to San Francisco and the conductor and senator had a great time establishing family connections.

Senator Hiram Johnson came to San Francisco on board the Overland Limited, which was crowded with Democratic leaders, but the senator had an enjoyable time with his political enemies. He took great pleasure in good-naturedly kidding Senator Glass. "The senator has the platform with him wrapped up in that brilliant green necktie," Senator Johnson told newspapermen.

The King Brothers constitute one-fourth of the Utah delegation. Senator William King and his brother, Samuel A. King, are both delegates from Utah.

F. A. Holt of Jacksonville, Fla., says Governor Edwards of New Jersey has won the affection of southerners. Not necessarily because he's for booze, he explained, but for his advocacy of that other thing (you know)—the thing the Civil war was supposed to have settled: State's rights.

The women attending the convention are declared to be more interested in the platform than they are in the candidates. At a recent luncheon in honor of Mrs. George Bass, Mrs. Elizabeth McCarthy said: "Ladies, have any of you noticed that we have been talking for more than one hour and a half and there has not been a single allusion to a candidate?"

Charles F. Murphy spent his first two hours in San Francisco dodging photographers. They are his pet aversion, even more so than reporters.

Jeff Davis, rightly enough, is a delegate to this convention. He hails from south of the M. and D. line, too, coming from Toccoa, Ga.

DEPENDABLE DENTISTRY

Throw Away Your Old Plates

Nine times out of ten they are ugly, loose, hurt your gums, and drop down when you laugh, sneeze or cough, and eating with them is impossible.

It takes an expert to make perfect fitting plates. Our Prosthetic Dentist is an artist in this particular profession and has had years of experience. He takes double impressions, studies the contour of the face, watches the lip line and arranges the teeth on an anatomical articulator so they articulate, or come together naturally.

These features and our own method of producing suction makes a set of teeth that feels good, looks natural, and sticks to the tissues so tight that the patient can eat anything with comfort.

The Biggest Figure-Job

Calculating—figuring that is done simply to get an answer—is the biggest figure-job in business. There must be calculating before the figures are ready for the bookkeeper to enter: footing, checking, making extensions, figuring discounts, getting percentages. This "scratch pad" figuring takes a large part of the time of anyone who has anything to do with business figures. It's costly, too, when done in the ordinary way.

The Burroughs Calculator adds, subtracts, multiplies and divides, without printing the figures, just by depression of the keys. It is, therefore, very fast, and, of course, accurate. It brings speed and economy to the biggest figure-job in business.

The Burroughs Calculator is the result of thirty years—and more—of experience in manufacturing figuring and bookkeeping machines. In speed, accuracy, ease of operation, durability and beauty of design and finish it is a product worthy of the largest manufacturer of figuring machines. It is light and compact and can be easily carried from one place to another.

There is a place for the Burroughs Calculator in every office that has figures to handle. The Burroughs representative will be glad to show you how quickly and accurately it will handle your miscellaneous figuring.

TO ENLARGE ITS HOLD ON SENATE

By A. O. HAYWARD
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 24.—Although deeply immersed in plans to bring about his election as president, Senator Harding also is giving attention to the Congressional contests.

The presidential and congressional campaigns will not be linked together in detail but they are united and the national committee will have general supervision of both.

Besides the entire membership of the House of Representatives to be elected, there are 32 senatorial seats to be filled by the elections in November.

Excited by Story of "Special Wire"

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Stories of special wires by which the President may talk or listen to the San Francisco convention persist in floating about, and this despite frantic denials.

"It is all perfect rot," said Homer S. Cummings in San Francisco, and within three or four minutes, in far-off Washington Joseph P. Tumulty was dictating the same denial.

This much seems certain. The story bothered Cummings enough to cause him to wire it to Tumulty, and he exercised Tumulty that he summoned the press representatives and shot forth a pointed denial.

"If there is nothing to the yarn," the lobbies ask, "why all this excitement?"

Fifteen of these senate seats are now held by Republicans. Senator Harding conferred today with Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey on steps to be taken by the senate Republican campaign committee to hold all these seats for the Republicans and to gain new ones from the Democrats.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington is chairman of the senate committee. Senator Frelinghuysen announced that plans had been completed by which he and Senator Calder of New York would be stationed at Republican headquarters in New York to direct the senate campaign in the east.

Sensors New and McCormack, with headquarters at Chicago, will have direction of the middle west campaigns. It is expected that Senator Poindexter will see to it that western Republican senators will assume charge of the Pacific coast and mountain states fights.

De Valera Reception at Hotel Arranged

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Arrangements for a public reception to Eamon de Valera, president of the Irish Republic, and Frank P. Walsh, national president of the American Commission for Irish Independence, were completed today. The Sinn Fein leader and party will arrive at the Ferry building at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. They will be met by a delegation, including Mayor Ralph H. Barker, and will be taken to the hotel De Valera will speak at a mass meeting Monday night in Dreamland rink. Other speakers will be Frank P. Walsh, Edward F. Dunne, David I. Walsh and George Harkins. Invitations to the mass meeting have been sent delegates of the Democratic National Convention.

Harding Gets Dollar Loaned Years Ago

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Among his daily quota of congratulatory letters and promises of support, Senator Harding received a letter from a man in Rochester, Pa., containing a check for $1.

The accompanying letter said: "It is not my intention to owe a president of the United States anything except my admiration and good will, therefore I inclose my check for $1. Some years ago in your private office at Marion I borrowed the $1 for reasons you may imagine. It helped at a time when work was scarce and money scarcer."

SYRACUSE, N. Y., June 24.—Daniel Hall of Columbus, Ohio, national commander of the G. A. R., about to retire from office, was taken seriously ill here yesterday. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

FAVOR GOV. COX, LEAGUE AND WET

By GEORGE C. HENDERSON.
SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Democracy's distinguished advance guard is here today, consisting of Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, "Boss" Charles Murphy, Governor Albert E. Smith, Commissioner Lewis Nixon and Judge James A. Foley of New York and George White of Ohio. The "guard" arrived at Oakland mole on an enthusiastic over the prospects for a successful Democratic year and sent up with enthusiasm for Wilson's League of Nations and a "wet" plank.

Most of the New York delegates will arrive Friday, Murphy said. Senator Glass, framer of the Virginia platform, which has met the approval of President Wilson, comes directly from the President's side, having had four interviews with the President within as many days, and he declared that the President's attitude on the League of Nations has not changed.

WILSON WANTS LEAGUE
"President Wilson has not changed his decision to have the League of Nations adopted without reservations," declared Senator Glass, a wiry, composed little man, who dresses very plainly and is inclined to eliminate himself in a crowd.

Senator Glass was seen to smile only once on his arrival last night at the mole and that was when the newspaper and movie photographers set up the cry of "There he is. The man with the green tie." Sobriety is his chief characteristic and he wouldn't even admit that the "wearing of the green" is indicative of his attitude on the Irish question.

"I never saw President Wilson looking finer and more vigorous in my life," said Glass. "I have been in conference with him very often and I can say without fear of contradiction that he is completely recovered from his recent illness."

"Boss" Charles Murphy of the New York delegation was the sphinx of the party, but Governor Albert E. Smith and others were not averse to inferring that the 50 New York delegates will be conspicuous for their humidity when the "wet and dry" question comes up.

GOVERNOR SMITH BLAND
Governor Smith, who comes with his wife and daughter Emily, was in a rare good humor. He is chairman of the New York delegation and laughed when asked if he is a presidential candidate.

"Well, I guess my delegation is going to vote for me," he said. "And a few others, too," it was suggested.

"Yes, I suppose I have other friends."

"Is it true that the New York delegation is pledged to secure revision of the Volstead act?" Governor Smith was asked.

"Something like that," returned the governor. "We believe that something ought to be done, but cannot tell what until we have consulted with other party leaders."

When asked what he considered to be the big issue before the party he replied promptly, "The League of Nations."

MURPHY IS RETICENT
Charles Murphy was asked concerning his indictment by a federal grand jury in New York on the charge of attempting to defraud the United States by falsifying income tax returns and attempted intimidation of Louis N. Hartog, to secure the return of $125,000 which Murphy had loaned Hartog.

"What indictment is that?" said Murphy. "Never heard of it, and then when it was explained he said: 'Nothing to it. Just a business transaction which Hartog is trying to convert into a criminal affair. He got my $125,000 all right, and I want it back,'" continued the Tammany chieftain.

Indicted with Murphy were Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith; John A. McCarthy, former business partner of John Murphy, brother of the Tammany leader; Arthur J. Baldwin, a lawyer, and Ernest B. Walden, vice-president of the Corn Products Company and the Corn Products Company itself. Murphy threatened to sue the parties of arson, ruin his business and family life and send him to jail, the indictment alleges.

Delegate George White of Ohio, in contrast to the reserved attitude of the New Yorkers, was smiling and jovial and ready to discuss all problems.

"WE WANT COX"
"We are for Cox for President, 100 per cent, and we will support the League of Nations," declared White. "As to the Volstead act, I believe there will be some modification of it."

"We hear nothing of a third party in the East and I do not believe it will be a factor. The biggest issues before the Democratic party now are the League of Nations, solution of industrial unrest and the 'wet or dry' question."

White says Cox can beat Harding in his home state.

Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Smith and daughter and Mrs. Foley, wife of Judge Foley, accompanied the party. Supreme Court Justice James Johnson of Ohio, who is to nominate Governor Cox, did not arrive as expected last night. It was also erroneously reported that Tom Taggart and the Hon. Thomas S. Smith of New York were with the party.

Headed by Mrs. Gailard Foley, the official women's reception committee, consisting of Mrs. Sydney Van Wyck, Mrs. Marcus Koshland, Mrs. Timothy Healy, Miss Frances Joliffe and Mrs. A. S. Baldwin of San Francisco, met Governor Smith's party.

President Told Wage Board Will Get Busy

WASHINGTON, June 24.—President Wilson has received a reply from the Railroad Labor Board in Chicago, promising to expedite the award in the railway wage controversy. The message was in reply to one sent by the President.

MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND

BY ADELE GARRISON

What Happened When Alice Holcombe Was Called as a Witness.
Alice Holcombe burst into the office almost as soon as Mr. Prentiss was out of earshot. I guessed that she had been watching for his departure from some safe vantage point.

"Will you tell me why you stopped me when I was about to throw my job in old Prentiss's false teeth?" she demanded tempestuously. "I had hoped this with a note of bitterness in her voice. 'That you would join me in saying you would resign if the school board asked Kenneth to do so. I'm sure most of the other girls would, and what you got me that signal I could hardly believe my eyes.'"

"I have always found you to have reasons for your actions, so I obeyed you. But I can tell you that you've got to put your good arguments to justify yourself. That old puffed porpoise! If I could only get the girls to walk out in a body and let him and the rest of the board take their old school!"

I stepped to the door, turned the key and looked at my wrist watch. "We've got exactly two minutes to settle this thing. Then we've got to go and dismiss the pupils. What did you tell the teachers?"

"Told 'em to hold the pupils and put them to work in their seats until you or I came around and formally dismissed 'em," she said shortly.

"Good! Now let's look for a place. In the first place, there is not a woman here who would even consider joining you in resigning. You're overwrought, and you think the others look at things through your spectacles. You see, under the peculiar conditions surrounding this thing, a woman ranging herself on the side of Mr. Stockbridge risks not only her job but her reputation, which means her future positions. They simply cannot afford to do it."

She dropped dejectedly into a chair, all the truculence gone from her.

"I suppose you are right," she said, her voice flat and lifeless. "I can see your standpoint, and I can't blame you. But—with a flash of her former fire—"It is different with me. I am not going to give up my job or reputation for the sake of a man."

"What do you mean?" she countered.

"Did he not ask, nay command you, to keep away from him, not to attempt to speak to him or send him any message until he gave you leave?" I asked earnestly. "Depend upon it, he has some good reason for his request. You promised to do as he asked, and here you are planning something which would break the spirit of that promise irrevocably."

WHAT SHE PROMISED
She stared at me wide-eyed. I saw conviction that I was right mirrored in her face. Then she pulled her figure erect, rose from her chair and said to me, for the present, "I shall have to go in two hours." She said tonelessly. "I suppose you will have to stay until the regular time for dismissing school."

Something in her voice made me put my arms around her unyielding stiff figure.

"I shall stay here until you come back, if it be midnight," I assured her. "You know you'll be a wreck after it, no matter how things go, and the last place you'll want to go will be home where you'll have to put on a brave front, and mask your real feelings."

"I know all that better than you do," she retorted.

"All the more reason why you should come to me," I countered. "Now promise me that the minute the thing is over, you'll come straight to me."

She waited a long minute before answering. I guessed that she was still harboring resentment against me, unjust though she herself realized it was, for my attitude toward her proposal to resign her position. But at last her face cleared.

Better Teeth for Everybody

THE E. R. PARKER SYSTEM in Dentistry has done for the masses what old-style dentistry did for the few. It has made it possible for everybody to have their teeth skillfully cared for at prices they can afford to pay.

The work done by dentists using the E. R. Parker System is so good that it can be widely advertised. It is so good that it can be guaranteed. It is so good that, no matter what price you pay others, you can not be better satisfied.

An important part of the E. R. Parker System is to educate the public about the benefits of good teeth and the dangers to health of bad teeth. This is right in line with the welfare work for better health now being done all over the country.

There are twenty-four dental offices where the E. R. Parker System is used by Registered Dentists, who comprise the largest and most successful organization in the world practicing dentistry. Under this System, examinations and advice are free to all.

Fresh Clean dish towels Every Day without any bother of rubbing or boiling

"EVERY good housekeeper washes her dish towels every day!"
Your mother and grandmother drilled it into you. Yet how you have always hated this particular household task. Dish towels get so greasy—you have to rub them so to get them clean—you have to boil them in soap or soda.

If you neglect to wash them, your supply runs short—you have to use soiled towels that leave the dishes smeary.

Now you can just soak your dish towels clean in bubbly, cleansing Rinso suds.

Drop them into the rich Rinso suds after the breakfast dishes are finished. Let them soak three hours. Then rinse them. And they will be clean and dry for the next dish washing.

Not a bit of rubbing—the pure Rinso granules are so high in cleansing value they loosen all the dirt. It rinses right out—even if you use cold water.

No boiling, except occasionally, if you wish to sterilize.

And your towels last twice as long as when you rub them so. And keep their crisp cross-bar coloring, that boiling fades so fast.

Use Rinso always for dish towels, and other especially hard things to wash. Use it for all your washing—it saves you endless work—it saves the clothes.

Get Rinso from your grocer. The easy directions are on the package. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. (Makers of Lux.)

AN EVERSHARP LEAD PENCIL IS ALWAYS SHARP
Strange But True They Never Need Sharpening
The average person who has never seen an Ever-sharp Pencil is under the impression that the name does not accurately describe the pencil—in fact, it is hard to believe that a lead pencil can be manufactured so that it always is sharp.
The secret lies in the fact that the manufacturers have discovered a way to make a very thin lead, not much bigger around than an ordinary pin, with a screw and plunger mechanism, exclusively found in the Ever-sharp Pencil.
The lead does not slip and when the point comes short, all that you have to do is to give the top of the pencil a screw and out comes the lead.
These Ever-sharp Pencils are just as attractive as they are practical and if you know anyone who is using an ordinary lead pencil you will do them a favor by purchasing for them an up-to-date Ever-sharp.
Prices range from $1.00 up.
FINE IMPORTED FRENCH FACE POWDER—50c
Some people are very much surprised to know that we sell an imported French face powder at 50c a box.
These are good sized boxes and the powder is one of the best imported powders, as far as quality is concerned, that we have ever known. It is shipped from France in bulk and boxed in this country, which saves considerable initial expense.
This powder is called Precious Face Powder and comes in various tints.
We have been selling it for several years and a great many of our customers tell us that it is the best face powder that they have ever had the pleasure of using.
BATH CAPS
Our stores for several years have specialized upon bath caps and this year our stock is no exception to the general rule. We have had made in a great variety of shapes and colors at prices ranging from 15c to $1.00 each. Some of these caps are exceedingly attractive and all are of new stock imported to this home.

THE FINEST COOKING SPICES MADE—ASK FOR SQUIBB'S
Good, Pure Spices Make A Big Difference
Squibb's proprietary articles for druggists are known everywhere for their splendid quality. Recently we added to these regulation drug store specialties by purchasing a line of Squibb's Spices, probably the finest spices made today.
We have Squibb's nutmeg, cinnamon, cloves, allspice, mace, ginger and white and black pepper. These spices are probably finer than you've ever used before.
For example, the black pepper tastes quite different from ordinary black pepper. The berries are all selected and they have a real pepper flavor. It is the same with all of Squibb's spices.
These spices cost a little more than the ordinary kinds, but they are well worth the difference.
HOW ARE THE ANTS GETTING ALONG?
It's Easy To Drive Them Out
Do not forget that if the Argentine ants are bothering you, it is your own fault.
Argo-Ant Poison, if used in your garden as per our instructions, will remove this pest from your house and if continually used by yourself and neighbors, it will remove them from the neighborhood.
The authorities at the University of California have absolutely proven this to be a fact and if everyone could be persuaded to fight ants in this manner, the pest would disappear and could only return by the importation of products containing ants from other districts.

Foreman & Clark PRICES and VALUES will never be equalled

Naturally!

Ten years ago this business started with $310. Today our sales exceed $6,000,000 yearly! Could such a sensational growth be built on anything but remarkable VALUES?

—until our way of doing business too is equalled!

The first thing a man does after seeing Foreman & Clark Clothes is to wonder how we can do it---and why no other firm has ever equalled F. & C. clothing values. That's why we tell the world our commonsense business principles---all five of them. No other clothing dealer in the world does business this way.

TRADE UPSTAIRS & SAVE $10

---that's our slogan---but the upstairs feature is only one of five remarkable business principles---and the $10 is only a part of the saving you effect!

Our cost of production, right in our own big wholesale tailor shops, is from 42% to 46% less than average clothing manufacturing costs elsewhere.

During an entire year our profit on a suit or top coat averaged only 56c.

We "turn over" our stocks (renew them completely) once every six weeks, instead of two or three times yearly---hence no left-overs to force upon our customers.

Here are the 5 famous reasons for F. & C. Savings:

1. A coast-to-coast chain of UPSTAIRS stores.
2. We save $497,678.00 yearly in rent.
3. We have our own big wholesale tailor shops.
4. Plain stores--no mahogany fixtures.
5. Cash business--no credit losses.

We believe no clothing business in the world has so large a percentage of "repeat" customers---men who come back again and again for Foreman & Clark clothes! Our wearers number hundreds of thousands! And you can bank on this---nothing in the world but down-right VALUE and unfailing satisfaction could hold an army of men like this steadfastly to one kind and quality of clothing!

When you visit this store, you KNOW in advance that every single garment, every suit and topcoat, offers the biggest clothing VALUE in America!

Our overhead is probably the lowest of any clothing merchant in the country---little more than half the ordinary cost.

SPITE ROBBERS LOOT HOME FOR SEVENTH TIME

"I don't know what special grudge burglars have against me," said Mrs. Lee B. Gilpin, 2926 Webster street, to the police this morning, "but it must be something serious."

Mrs. Gilpin then told the police that for the seventh time within the last few months her home was entered last night by marauders and completely ransacked.

A pearl necklace was included in the loot obtained by the burglars, who entered the house by cutting through the screen of a rear window and then prying open the window with a hammer.

Four weeks ago the Gilpin home was entered and completely stripped of silverware.

WOMAN ROUTS THIEVES
Burglars who entered the store of W. F. Howlett, 2419 East Fourteenth street last night were frightened away by the presence of mind of a woman, Mrs. D. O'Dea, who lives in a house next to the store.

Later last night, Mrs. O'Dea was wakened by noise in the store. The walls between the two buildings are thin, and she could plainly hear the tinkle of the cash register as it was opened by the thieves.

Knowing that no one could be in the store at that hour of the night except burglars, Mrs. O'Dea got up and knocked on the wall.

"Who is in there?" she demanded. "If you don't leave Mr. Howlett's store at once, I am going to call the police."

There was a sound of scuffling feet and then silence. Nothing of value was taken.

LOSSES REPORTED.
Sam Crodis, 810 Washington street, reported to the police this morning that burglars had broken into his room last night and stolen a gold watch and $33 in currency and silver.

Another case of "the meanest thief in town" was reported to the police this morning by L. J. Freeman, a druggist, who states that a five-dollar bill was snatched from the hand of one of his delivery boys by a man in a downtown hotel while the boy was making a delivery. The man then ran away. The boy complained to the hotel clerk. A search proved futile.

'Planes Open Patrol of Forests on July 1

MEDFORD, Ore., June 24.—Captain Lowell H. Smith, in charge of the forest airplane patrol service in Oregon and Northern California, reported to the police this morning that the service yesterday before flying for Eugene. The captain's party which consisted of Lieutenant H. Goldborough, Sergeant Ambrose and another enlisted man, flew here Tuesday from Medford in three planes. A wireless station also will be constructed. A crew of twenty army men will be stationed at the Medford base. The service will begin July 1.

Johnson, Home, Hugs Grandsons And Scores Pledge Breakers

UNITED STATES SENATOR HIRAM JOHNSON and his two grandchildren, sons of Hiram Johnson Jr.

Rather Defeat With Public Than Victory Without Senator's Formal Statement Says

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—"You cannot heat these for a pair of axes,"

Senator Hiram W. Johnson, home today, this was the most important speech he had made since reaching San Francisco, despite the fact that for the first time following his defeat in Chicago he has broken his silence on political questions.

He stood on his lawn with his arms about his two little grandsons. "All I want to do," he laughed, "is to roll down the terrace with these boys."

And then all three laughed merrily.

To the man who forced the political world to watch his every move for weeks while the Republicans were framing affairs in Chicago, it was a big moment. He had returned triumphantly to his home state, being officially greeted for miles along the railway line before San Francisco was reached. Although he said in his formal statement that his one "big emotion" was his overwhelming delight at again being home, it was the little arms about his neck, the soft lips to his cheek and the gleaming laughter of real pleasure from his grandsons that went to his heart. The children are Hiram Johnson III and Philip Bowles Johnson, sons of Hiram Johnson Jr.

CLAIMS RIGHT TO REST.
"After my long and arduous campaign, I think I am entitled to a brief respite," he said.

It was the beginning of a statement in which he recalled the G. O. P. losses and declared that the system "that enables a few men to control the destinies of a nation" must be destroyed.

"It was difficult for the senator to picture the scene in Chicago. He seemed anxious to leave that wild week in his grave and find pleasure in the homecoming."

At the railroad station he was surrounded by the people. The porter who reached for his handbag at the station first grasped the hand of the senator and grinned him a welcome.

The little old lady, with faded flowers in her spring hat flashed him a tearful smile and threw California flowers on the platform before him.

The little girl who knew his grandsons and who knew the joy of having a granddaddy, was there to wave a welcome.

HIS SILENCE BROKEN.
Then in the great whirl of smiling people came the news squits and Senator Johnson broke his silence on politics.

"I want to thank the people of California and those of other states who stood by me in the contest," he said in his formal statement. "I am home with no regrets, cheerful and with full equanimity."

"I entered the struggle with no illusions. I came out of it with none. In a fair fight the people responded to me in direct primaries, before the people themselves, I won."

"I could not translate the people's support into support by those who controlled the convention. A few men, contemptuous of the rank and file of the party and determined the expressed will of the people should not be controlling, cynically disregarded the presidential primaries. I say this, not in criticism of the candidate selected, Senator Harding, but of the future you will find me good humored, good natured and just as full of fight as ever, and determined that in time to come the people shall rule, rather than a few men and international bankers sitting in New York."

Y. M. C. A. CLERK IS SLUGGED BY NIGHT ROBBERS

Attacked from behind by two men and made unconscious by a blow on the head from a blackjack wielded by one of the thugs, Manuel Telles, night clerk at the Y. M. C. A., Twenty-first and Telegraph, was severely injured at 1 o'clock this morning when a daring attempt was made to rob the association's office.

Telles came to work last night at 10:30 o'clock. Entering the outer office shortly before 1 o'clock this morning, he heard a noise and the mutter of voices in an adjoining office.

"There had been two men lurking around the office all evening whose looks I did not like," said Telles this morning, "and when I heard the muffled voices in the inner office, the thought that trouble was ahead flashed into my mind."

He stepped behind the desk and stooped to reach a drawer for a night stick, preparatory to opening the door of the inner office to ascertain the meaning of the voices within.

As he stopped, he was felled by a terrific blow on the head. He screamed and fell unconscious.

He was found a few minutes later by H. B. Eubanks, who lives at the Y. M. C. A. The police were called and the injured man was taken to the receiving hospital for treatment.

Nothing was taken by the robbers, so far as can be found this morning.

It developed this morning that Charles J. Pearce, who also lives at the Y. M. C. A., gave the night clerk $700 in currency and told him to keep it for H. B. Eubanks until morning. These things, however, strange men who had been in the lobby during the evening watched the money change hands. It is thought by the police that it is these two men who are undoubtedly responsible for the slugging of the night clerk and the attempted robbery of the Y. M. C. A.

Man in Pantry, Reply Husband Makes Wife

Denying charges by Mrs. Margaret Renholz in her divorce suit that he often beat her, and once drove her out of the house in her night clothes, John Renholz has filed an answer denying his wife's undignified charges.

John Renholz, a butcher, who he says he once found in a pantry with his wife. He asks custody of the children.

As a mere statement of a recognized fact which has been repeated often of late.

The system that thus enables a few men to control the destinies of a nation must be destroyed.

"California men feel proud of the fight they made. The people were with us, the politicians and those sinister influences with which we have become familiar in our politics were against us. That's the whole story. I'd rather go down to defeat with California and the people than win without them."

Previous to this he had told a waiting crowd along the line that they should not "think me downhearted by the result of the convention. I am just as happy as ever."

"I started in the campaign on a shoestring but when I got through I had the people of the United States with me, even though I didn't have the delegates. It doesn't make any difference if a few politicians sitting in the Blackstone hotel in Chicago said 'the people be damned,' for the people eventually will come into their own."

"The future you will find me good humored, good natured and just as full of fight as ever, and determined that in time to come the people shall rule, rather than a few men and international bankers sitting in New York."

JOHN CROSSES BAY TO RELATE "STALL" THERE

"It was a good stall, but it didn't work," John Cosetto said when arrested last night and charged with violating the national prohibition law. He was taken to San Francisco this morning.

Last night Patrolman P. A. Pierce saw a wagon near Twenty-ninth and Grove streets. He had seen the same wagon in the same vicinity at the same time for several nights.

"What have you wrapped in canvas in the back of your wagon?" Pierce asked.

"Nothing," answered Cosetto, the driver.

Pierce found a large demijohn in a chest.

"That just dropped from a truck and I was coming on behind and picked it up," Cosetto explained.

"You can tell it to Commissioner Krull in San Francisco," said Pierce.

PAY PLEAS FAIL, CITY HEADS SAY

There will be no change in the council announced policy of a tax rate for the coming year of not more than the old rate of $2.44, according to the stand maintained yesterday by two of the commissioners in face of a repeated demand from labor leaders that teachers, firemen and policemen receive a more generous increase than provided in the new salary schedule recently adopted.

A delegation of twelve representatives of the Building Trades Council and Central Labor Council presented to Commissioners F. F. Morse and V. H. Edwards yesterday another appeal for the employees. Both commissioners "stood pat" on their previous attitude pledging the $2.44 rate, and further declared that a suggested plan of supplying the necessary funds for the increases by an increase in assessments is impossible because the new rolls have already been made up.

MISSING POISON QUIZ STILL ON; POLICE ON GRILL

The probe started yesterday by Commissioner F. F. Morse into the circumstances surrounding the disappearance of the poison department, was continued this afternoon. The investigation is being held behind closed doors.

During yesterday afternoon's session testimony was taken from acting Captain of Inspectors James Drew, Inspector William Emish and Inspector Robert Tracy, all of whom at one time or another handled the missing drug. According to Morse, all three gave substantially the same testimony as they previously gave to Chief of Police Lynch, on which the latter declared it would be impossible to place responsibility for the disappearance of the poisons because of the many hands through which they passed.

Today's investigation was devoted to an examination of Sergeant Frank Abern, property clerk of the department; Inspector Thomas Gallagher and Inspector Thomas Wood, Division of Inspectors; Walter J. Petersen, who was in charge of the plain clothes bureau when the drug case was first unearthed, will not be called. Commissioner Morse declared, because the department head considers he has no jurisdiction to subpoena Captain Petersen.

Pig's Slayer Fights Justice's Decision

Judge J. J. Trabucco is asked to decide whether John Souza, a rancher near Irvington, should be made to pay $20 for running over and killing two pigs with his automobile. M. V. Perry, a neighboring rancher, sued in the justice court in Niles and got judgment for the $20. He alleged that Souza intentionally ran over the pigs while driving at excessive speed. Souza is spending far more than $20 to appeal to the Superior Court.

While testifying today, Souza claimed he was only driving fifteen miles an hour and that he did not know he had even struck the pigs until informed by Perry. Attorney Thomas J. Power of Irvington discounted this assertion, however, and argued that Souza must have felt the bump, although they were only lumpy pigs.

Women Go Back On Open Caucus, Promise

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The first meeting of the associated national committeewomen of the Democratic party was held today, and it was behind closed doors. Thus are rived for those who have been watching the pre-convention proceedings of the women the biggest surprise they have had. Several times since the women gathered here in force statements have emanated from Mrs. George Bass, president of the Women's Bureau, and others that "women played politics differently from men; that they planned no secret meetings and no caucuses."

Trusted, however, the door of their apartments at the Palace Hotel closed silently but abruptly behind the last committeewoman to enter. Mrs. Bass told the press representatives they could get their information from the publicity secretary.

BUILD UP YOUR BLOOD

It is a hopeless task to try to restore your health while your blood is deficient in quantity or quality.

The blood circulates throughout every portion of the body except the hair and nails. It takes the nourishment from the food and distributes it to the various muscles and organs; it takes also any medication that is administered through the mouth. The blood is the only means by which medication can reach the nerves. If the blood is thin its carrying capacity is lessened because it is the red corpuscles in the blood that carry oxygen and other needed constituents to the various parts of the body.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People increase the red corpuscles in the blood. They enable it to absorb more oxygen, to carry more life and strength to the weakened organs. In any disease in which the patient becomes thin and pale, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be used successfully to combat the anemia and build up the health and strength. A valuable booklet, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.—Advertisement

ADAMS RESTS IN DEATH CAR CASE

The defense closed its case this morning in the trial of W. R. Adams, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Alice Rockwell and the injury of Mrs. Sturtevant Peet. Arguments were begun by Deputy District Attorney Myron Harris, who was followed this afternoon by Senator Frank M. Carr for the defense.

Harris declared Adams violated the law by cutting the corner just before he crashed into the other auto at Grand avenue and Staten street.

Carr stated that the responsibility for the accident lay with the occupants of the other car, whose chauffeur was driving at an excessive speed in hurrying to a matinee. He declared there was no charge of speeding on Adams' part. It is expected the case will go to the jury late this afternoon.

The arraignment of Wilfred G. Nelson, son of W. H. Nelson, wealthy San Francisco attorney, and who is charged with failing to render aid to a victim, following an automobile accident in which his car killed Emil Peterson and seriously injured Mrs. Anna Johnson, was continued for one week by Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church today.

Rich Slayer Guilty; Is Returned to Jail

SEATTLE Wash., June 24.—Ingram Rader, wealthy fuel contractor, who has been at liberty on $20,000 bail since the slaying of his former employee, Bud Dean Curtis, passed today in the county jail dependent over the verdict of a jury convicting him of murder in the second degree and recommending the maximum penalty, life imprisonment.

Rader will ask for a new trial. He was convicted of killing Curtis in Rader's wood camp near Lake City on April 3, after Curtis had accused him of breaking up his home.

Drunken Chauffeurs Increase, Judge Says

"It is a peculiar fact that since the prohibition law went into effect there have been more cases in court of automobile drivers operating their machines while drunk than ever before," said Judge Samuels this morning. "The increase of this serious charge is very marked."

John R. Storrs, who was arrested yesterday morning on East Fourteenth street, following an automobile crash, was arraigned this morning and his trial set for July 7.

The examination of Edward B. Healy, truck driver, who was arrested on San Pablo avenue after an alleged erratic and bibulous ride, was set for July 9.

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information

All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did, our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove of benefit to many women:

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I suffered with organic inflammation and displacement. When lying I had each pain and burning down, that I was not able to stand up, and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor, was not any better, and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I met a lady who told me she had three operations and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I felt relief after taking two bottles of Vegetable Compound and I kept on with it until I was cured. I always use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and they are fine. Everything used to turn sour on my stomach, and the Liver Pills relieved that."—Mrs. A. BOONER, 633 Fargo Avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sacramento, Calif.—"I had organic trouble and had such terrible pain and swelling in the lower part of my side that I could not stand on my feet or even let the bed clothes touch my side. I gave up all my work thinking I would not be able to go back for months. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it had saved me in a wonderful condition in a couple of weeks, so I can keep on working. I work in a department store and I do not stand on my feet all day and I do not have any more pain. I greatly recommend your Vegetable Compound to all my friends and you will use this as fact as a testimonial."—SARAH J. PARKER, 8700 St. Sacramento, Calif.

Story a Day

Copyright, 1920, by Doubleday, Page & Co.; published by special arrangement with the Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.

"But can him that helps others help himself?"—Mulaney.

This is the story that William Trotter told me on the beach at Aguas Frecas while I waited for the captain of the fruit steamer Andador which was to take me aboard. He actually told me the story of the Land of Always Afternoon. William was remaining, and he favored me with a condensed oral edition of his biography as he sat on the sands in the shade cast by the Bodega Nacional.

As usual, I became aware that the Man from Bombay had already written the story; but as he had composed it to an eight-word sentence, I have become an expansionist, and have quoted his phrase about, with apologies to him and best regards to Terence.

"Don't you ever have a desire to go back to the land of derby hats and starched collars?" I asked him. "You seem to be a handy man, and a man of action," I continued, and I am sure I could find you a comfortable job somewhere in the States."

"I have," he said, "I have been a confirmed eater of the lotos, William Trotter had pleased me much, and I had to see him fobbed up by the lotos."

"I've no doubt you could," he said, "I've no doubt you could do much for me. If every man could do as much for himself as he can for others, every country in the world would be holding millenniums instead of centuries."

"Hear that?" said William Trotter. "Let me tell you about it. A year ago I landed on this coast with one solitary dollar. I have the same sum in my pocket today. I was second cook on a tramp steamer, and they marooned me here early one morning without benefit of clergy, just because I couldn't read."

"You can't read," says he, "polite," "assure you."

"I assure you," I said, "the first mate with cheese omelette at dinner. The lotos had been because I'd put horseshoe in it instead of cheese."

"When they threw me out of the jail into three feet of surf, I waded ashore and sat down under a palm-tree. By and by a fine-looking white man with a red face and white clothes gentled as possible but somewhat under the influence came and sat down beside me."

"I had noticed there was a kind of a house on the beach, and I had seen enough scenery to outfit a dozen moving-picture shows. But I thought, of course, it was a cannibal suburb, and I was wondering whether I should be served with carrots or mushrooms. And as I sat, this dressed-up man came beside me and became friendly in the space of a minute. For an hour we talked and he told me all about it."

"It seems that he was a man of parts, conscientiousness and plausibility besides being educated and a winner to his friends. He told me all about it. Colleges had turned him out, and distilleries had taken him in. Did I tell you his name? It was Clifford Wainwright. I didn't exactly catch the cause of his being cast away on that peculiar stretch of South America, but I reckon it was his own business. I asked him if he had been second cook on a tramp steamer, and he said no, so that concluded my surmises. But he talked the encyclopedia from 'A-Berlin' to 'Zulu'—24 hours. I was a silver arrangement with work and up to date within twenty-four hours, anyhow."

"I'm pleased to have met you," says Wainwright. "I'm a devotee to the great José Bonito, but my running facilities are unimpaired," says he, "and words to that effect. And I hate to see you fooling trying to run the world."

"I never touch a drop," says I, "and there are many kinds of fools, and the world runs on its own axis according to science, with no meddling from me."

"But C. Wainwright wasn't. The case was open, and he walked the code and up to the president's table as confident as a man who knows the head waiter in a fifteen-cent restaurant. And I went with him because I had only seventy-five cents, and there was nothing else to do."

"The Gomez man rises from his chair, and looks, colored man as he was, like he was about to toe all out for corporal of the guard, post number one. But Wainwright says some phrases to him in a peculiarly lubricating manner, and the first thing you know we was all three of us seated at the table, with coffee and rolls and iguana cutlets coming as fast as about ninety pesos could rustle 'em."

"And then Wainwright begins to talk but the president interrupts him. 'You Yankies,' says he, 'polite, assure you, but you're better than you or me. You've had a long walk,' says he, 'but it's nice to ride. May I suggest some refreshments?' says he. 'Rum,' says Wainwright."

"Gimme a cigar," says I. "Well, sir, the two talked an hour, keeping the generals and equities all in their good uniforms waiting outside the fence. And while I smoked, silent, I listened to Clifford Wainwright making a solid republic out of the wreck of one I didn't follow his arguments with any special colloquialism of international intelligibility, but he had Mr. Gomez's attention glued and riveted. He takes out a pencil and marks the white linen tablecloth all over with figures and estimates and deductions. He speaks more or less disrespectfully of import and export duties and customs house receipts and taxes and treaties and budgets and concessions and such truck that politics and government require, and which he gets through the Gomez man hops up and shakes his hand and says he's saved the country and the people."

"I found out afterward that Wainwright was a regular beachcomber—the smartest man on the whole coast, but kept down by rum. I liked him. One day I inveigled him into a walk out a couple of miles from the village, where there was an old grass hut on the bank of a little river. While he was sitting on the grass talking beautiful of the wisdom of the world that he had learned in books, I took hold of him easy and tied his hands and feet together with leather thongs that I had in my pocket."

"He still," says I, "and meditate on the exiguities and irregularities of life till I get back."

"I went to a shack in Aguas Frecas where a mighty wise girl named Timotea carried on her little business. The girl was just about as nice as you ever saw. In the states she would have been called a brunette. I should say she was what you might term an ecru shade. I knew her pretty well. I told her about my friend Wainwright. She gave me a double handful of bark—calisaya, I think it was—and some more herbs, that I was to mix with it, and told me what to do. I was to make tea of it and give it to him, and keep him from rum. I did it. You know, I liked Wainwright. Both of us were nice, but Timotea sent us goat-meat and plantains and tortillas every day, and at last I got the cure of drink. I told Clifford Wainwright. He lost his taste for it. And in the cool of the evening him and me would sit on the roof of Timotea's mother's hut, eating harmless truck like coffee and rice and stewed crabs, and playing the accordion."

"About that time President Gomez found out that the advice of C. Wainwright was a good deal better than looking for debt. The country was pining out of debt, and the treasury had enough hooch in it for him to get the night-latch. The people were beginning to take their two-hour siesta again every day. Timotea was the surest sign of prosperity."

"So down from the regular capital he sends for me. Wainwright and I makes him his private secretary at twenty thousand Peru dollars a year. Yes sir—so much. Wainwright was his own master. I was his own man. And Timotea—and he was soon in clover with the government. I don't forget what he done it—saysaya oak with them other herbs mixed—make a tea of it, and give a couple of drops every two hours. I tell you, it takes away the desire."

"As I said, a man can do a lot more for another part than can for himself. Wainwright, with his brains got a whole country out of trouble and on its feet. But what could he do for himself? And without any special brains but with some nerve and common sense, I put him on his feet because I never had the weakness that he did—nothing but a cigar for mine, thanks. And—"

"Trotter paused. I looked at his tattered clothes and at his deeply sunburnt, hard, thoughtful face. 'Didn't Cartwright ever offer to do anything for you?' I asked."

"Wainwright," corrected Trotter, "he offered me some pretty good jobs. But I didn't take any of 'em up. Say, I didn't tell you much about that girl—Timotea. We rather hit it off together. She was as good as you find 'em anywhere. Spanish with just a twist of lemon-peel on top. What if they did live in a grass hut and went bare-footed?"

"She went away," I don't know where to—but better come back to the states," I insisted. "I can promise you positively that my brother will give you a position in cotton, sugar, or shellings—I am not, certain which."

"I think she went back with her mother," said Trotter, "what the village in the mountains that she came from. Tell me, what would this job you speak of pay?"

"Why," said I, hesitating over commerce, "it should say fifty or a hundred dollars a month—maybe two hundred."

"Isn't it funny," said Trotter, digging his toes in the sand, "what a man is when it comes to padding his own canoe? I don't know of course, I'm not a living here, but I can tell you. But I wish you could have seen that Timotea. Every man has his own weak spot."

"The girl from the Andador was coming ashore to take out the lone passenger. 'Till guarantee,' said I confidently, 'that my brother will pay you seventy-five dollars a month—maybe two hundred. All right, then,' said William Trotter. 'Till—'

"But a soft voice called across the blazing sands. A girl faintly lemon-tinted, stood in the Calle Real and looked at me."

"I found out afterward that Wainwright was a regular beachcomber—the smartest man on the whole coast, but kept down by rum. I liked him. One day I inveigled him into a walk out a couple of miles from the village, where there was an old grass hut on the bank of a little river. Fred Sherman Flies to His Valley Stores

Fred Sherman, vice-president of Sherman & Clay Company, left the company offices in San Francisco yesterday morning, and last evening, eight hours from the time of his departure, he returned, after having visited the offices of his firm at Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno and San Jose. He made the round trip in one of Cliff Duran's airplanes, with Lieutenant C. V. Pickup as pilot. Sherman now holds the record of having made the first consecutive business trip by air line service ever staged in the bay district.

Eddie Rickenbacker Will Visit Oakland

Eddie Rickenbacker, who as a captain in the American aviation service became the country's foremost ace, is to be the guest of honor at a luncheon which Cliff Duran will give tomorrow noon at the Hotel Oakland. Members of the Lincoln Highway Association, good roads, automobile and aviation committee members of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will also be guests. Rickenbacker downed twenty-four German planes and three balloons during his service.

U. S. Court to Hear Opera Company Suit

The suit brought by Lawrence A. Lambert of Portland, Ore., against the Gallo English Opera Company of New York, which was filed in the Superior Court of Alameda county, has been transferred to the United States District Court. Lambert claims he entered into a contract with the company for its services for fourteen weeks and, in violation of this contract, the company played an engagement in Oakland. Lambert claims damages of $21,733.18.

AMERICAN LEGION GOSSIP

Have you reinstated your war risk insurance? As has been announced, July 1 will be the last day of grace for reinstatements, and even should the bureau extend the time it is not likely that reinstatements after that time will be permitted without a physical examination which is unnecessary now.

To reinstate the applicant must state on his application that he is in good health as at the time of his discharge—but no physician's certificate is necessary—and must pay two months' premium. If he cares to reinstate his term insurance and convert it to a regular policy he must pay one month premium of the term insurance and the first annual, semi-annual, quarterly or monthly premium, as the case may be, of the converted policy selected.

The charter of the new Argonne post of the American Legion has been received. Election of officers and committeemen and a discussion of policies will take place at a meeting July 1, in the Municipal Auditorium.

Donald McClure, formerly with the First Division, who has been active in the organization of the new post, says approximately 350 have signed the roll. It is the intention of McClure to make the post a combined social and business organization, with business meetings twice a month and luncheons once a week.

When the charter for the new post was asked, state officials enquired of Oakland Post, No. 5, if there were objection to another post. Resolutions were passed welcoming the new body.

The local post's membership campaign, which began July 5, has added several hundred names to the post's rolls. The campaign will be closed with fitting Fourth of July exercises as a climax. A program of amusements has been provided for that day, as well as a program of speeches by local and national officers. Every member of the post, and of the new post, has been requested to be present with his family or friends. There are three cash prizes to be awarded to the member of Oakland Post, No. 5, who receives the most new members, also a merchandise prize.

The American Legion baseball team of Oakland sent down a defeat to the Fort Scott team at the Fort Baker grounds last Sunday. Some good ball was played on both sides, with the local team's sluggers pounding away at the pill with the persistence of a Boche seventy-seven. The officers at Fort Baker treated the Legion men with marked courtesy, and provided them with everything they needed to eat and drink, as well as furnished a boat with which to bring them back across the bay. Conspicuous among the rooters last Sunday were a great many members of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, who went along to help cheer the team to victory.

Coincident with Secretary Baker's reply to General Pershing after the latter had signified his intention of retiring, came the announcement that the former commander-in-chief of the A. E. F. had not been stung by the political bee. General Pershing has announced that he will not be a candidate, nor will he attend the convention in San Francisco. He was invited to accompany the Missouri delegation.

To further promote a spirit of good feeling between Canada and the United States, the executive council of the Great War Veterans' Association of Winnipeg has adopted a resolution recommending that negotiations be opened with the American Legion and the G. A. R. with the object of effecting a close affiliation, if not physical union, of the American with the Canadian veterans' organization.

The War Memorials Council, appointed by Secretary of War Baker, which will be charged with outlining plans for the regulation and beautification of the permanent cemeteries in which will rest the American dead and also to bring about a more complete understanding between civilians and the War Department, has been organized and already started to map out plans.

The Department of Justice is going to look into the escape of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft dodger de luxe, who escaped from his military guard May 21. A special federal grand jury is to investigate the escape and indict all those who have a hand in it has been impeached in the United States District Court.

Announcement has been made that the War Department is prepared to furnish transportation from Hoboken to their home of one relative or friend to accompany the body of each soldier who died abroad and whose body is being returned to this country for interment.

The use of the name of the American Legion in any political campaign, regardless of the party, will not be tolerated in Missouri, according to Edward J. Cahill, State adjutant of the Legion.

Wherever there's a Road

The Message of "Little Heap"

By CHARLES W. DUNCAN

"What do you stand for, Little Heap?" I heard a motorist say
To the little chief upon the sign that stands by the broad highway.
"Oh, why do you stand beside your tire, and smile but never sleep?
Come, little brave, speak up and tell me your story, Little Heap."
The Injun moved, stepped forth from the sign and down to the broad highway,
And he raised his hand in the sign of peace, and here's what he had to say:
"I've raised my hand in the sign of peace and I bring my pipe—smoke deep."

I'll tell you the reason I stand by the road and they call me 'Little Heap':
I stand by the road in this sign of mine, and signal to drivers like you;
And I shout my message as you pass by, as a real good savage should do.
I tell you I stand for the strongest tread that ever was worn by a tire;
I tell of mileage in store for you, and I shout it in letters of fire;
I tell of tires as tough as steel, that stand the gaff of the road,
And I tell of side-walls built with care, and of tubes that will carry the load.
I'm proud as I stand by the broad highway, with a 'Savage' tread by my side;

I'm proud, indeed, of my chieftain's blood, as I signal to you who ride,
For I stand for a tire that loves the road, with a tread that is black and deep,
And behind my smiles are thousands of miles—so they call me 'Little Heap.'
The Injun went back to his place in the sign, and the motorist scratched his head,
And he thought of the Injun and he thought of the tire, and of all Little Heap had said—
Then he drove into town, with his mind made up, that before he would eat or sleep,
He'd equip his car, both front and rear, with the tires of Little Heap.

EASTBAY WATER
PURCHASE PLAN
HEARING IS SET

A revised water program to include the purchase of the entire plant of the Eastbay Water company, under a new and improved public utility act, will be laid before the water committee of mayors and councilmen of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Richmond tomorrow afternoon at a conference in the office of Mayor John L. Davis of Oakland.

The new project will be placed before the committee by Mayor Davis in view of the collapse of the plan, under which each city was to purchase its share of the water company's distributing plant as the first step in a joint water program.

This scheme was killed by Wiggington Creed, president of the company, and George Wilhelm, chief engineer, at Monday's conference between the company's officials and Mayor Davis and Commissioner of Revenue and Finance William J. Bacon, Oakland's delegates on the commission, when the proposal to purchase Oakland's share of the plant was laid before the company heads by the statement that the company cannot finance its distributing plant from its service.

Plans of the city's water board, Mayor Davis, the committee will tomorrow consider a new public utility act to be laid before the state legislature next January, providing for a public utility district for water only, and more fitted to the requirements of the cities on this side of the bay than the act of 1915, which has already been rejected by the water committee as impossible.

Under the plan considered by Mayor Davis, and which he plans to lay before the committee tomorrow, the new act will eliminate all expense attached to the functioning of the district by placing the administration in the hands of the mayors of the cities in the district.

Birdmen to Light Up Sky
During Stunts Monday Night

The most spectacular exhibition of night flying ever seen in Oakland is being arranged by committees of the Merchants' Exchange as one of the big features of the Independence Day celebration on Monday, July 5. Details of the demonstration are being arranged by the general celebration committee of the exchange, with a flying squadron of birdmen who will supply the "aerial fireworks."

Following an elaborate fireworks display at Lake Merritt, the birdmen will fly over the city in brightly illuminated planes dropping fireworks as they circle the business section and the Lake Merritt district. During the exhibition the pilots will also perform some of their most daring flying stunts, streamers of flame lighting their path through the night.

The exhibition of "aerial fireworks" and night flying will come as the concluding feature of the most spectacular fireworks display ever held in Oakland, according to the plans of the special committee handling that details of the day's program under the direction of P. N. Hanrahan, who is also chairman of the general committee. More than $1000 will be spent on rockets, bombs and an elaborate set pieces, the largest set piece ever set off. Carpenters today started work on the framework of the flag.

M'DONOUGH WILL FACE BRIBE CASE
ON NEXT MONDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Accusation of Peter P. McDonough, bail bond broker, charged with perjury in the "police graft scandal," by a jury last night before Superior Judge Thakkar A. Griffin, will not halt the trial of McDonough on the second count of "bribery" of Police Judge Sullivan, which comes up Monday, State Attorney General U. S. Webb announced today.

After being out exactly an hour and after taking only two ballots, Eugene H. Lancel, foreman of the jury, announced that a verdict of not guilty had been reached at 5:55 o'clock last evening. Judge Griffin's charge to the jury had left the entire decision to the judgment of the jurors.

In finding McDonough not guilty the jury decided that there was not sufficient evidence to prove that he had perjured himself before the grand jury when he stated he had received only $80 in the Catterini case. The prosecution and Ricciardi contended that McDonough had received $400 of an $800 note.

Immediately after the verdict Assistant Attorney General E. B. Power brought up the bribery charge before the court, but a hearing on it was postponed until Monday morning, when Judge Griffin will set the case for trial. The indictment was a joint charge of perjury and bribery, the attorney general electing to try the perjury charge first.

McDonough's friends today declared the prosecution had tried its strongest case first, and that since it had broken down all the cases on which the perjury charge are based will be tried only as a matter of form.

McDonough declared after the verdict that he felt he had been vindicated of all "the malicious and false charges brought against me."

"I am glad that so much care was taken in the selection of a jury," he said, "and that the jury was carefully guarded from the time it was selected so that everyone will be satisfied this was a fair and impartial verdict."

The instruction of Judge Griffin, which the jury called for a second time, follows:

"I charge you that the indictment in this case charges that the defendant testified before the grand jury in a matter then under investigation that he had received the sum of $80 out of a certain promissory note of $800 mentioned in the said indictment, whereas the indictment charges that he had received the full amount of $800. Therefore, unless the evidence convinces you, beyond all reasonable doubt, that the defendant did not receive the sum of $800 alleged, or a sum greater than the $80, it will be your duty to return a verdict of not guilty."

This is the jury which acquitted McDonough.

Congressional Party Will Inspect Eastbay on Tour

A congressional party of 130 senators and congressmen with members of their immediate families who sail from here on July 3 on a two months' trip of inspection of Hawaii, the Philippines and the Orient, will be luncheon guests of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Oakland on July 2.

Telegraphic acceptance of an invitation tendered by Managing Director Joseph E. Caine to the party on his recent trip to Washington, D. C., was received this morning.

The party will devote the entire day of the luncheon to a visit to the Eastbay district, including a trip through the University of California grounds, an automobile ride over the Skyline boulevard and visits to some of the more important Eastbay factories and the Alameda site for the proposed naval base.

According to Caine, the party will sail on the United States army transport Great Northern on July 3 for Honolulu. After an extended tour of the islands, the party will go to the Philippines and the Orient. The party sails from Yokohama or Nagasaki, Japan, on the return trip August 24.

Prince J. Kuhllo Kalaniana'ole of Walkiki, the congressional representative from Hawaii, is sponsoring the inspection trip.

Members of the party will assemble in San Francisco on July 1 to make preparations for the trip. Many of them are Democratic convention delegates.
